Featuring a collection of original paintings by internationally acclaimed Artist, Fahim Hamid Ali with an opportunity to meet the artist himself.

Fahim Hamid Ali is a self taught artist who emerged on the art scene about 20 years ago. He generally works in mixed media on paper/canvas and is much at ease with the wash painting technique where he works with liquid oil paints flowing like water and seldom uses a brush instead uses his fingers to paint. Fahim's works range from people, wild life, landscapes to historic events, Islamic Calligraphy and Hindu mythology. Fahim has the singular honour of having his original painting of Tipu Sultan being acquired by the National Museum of Pakistan for permanent display. He has also had the honor of painting His Highness the Aga Khan's first ever portrait on glass. Since 1991, Fahim has shown his works in Singapore, Canada, The United States, United Kingdom, Kenya and Tanzania.
